

Alumni: Esme Racey

Esme Racey studied with the music department at Vision West Nottinghamshire College between 2014 – 2018 where she successfully completed a Level 3 Extended Diploma in Music Technology and an HND in Music. Esme then progressed to the Confetti Institute of Creative Technologies where she achieved a BSc First Class Honours degree in Audio and Music Technology. On completion of her education, Esme went on to train as a sound mixer at the commercial local television channel, Notts TV.

Esme is currently working as a Junior Broadcast Assistant/Multi-Skilled Operator for East Midlands company, Cloudbass Ltd. Cloudbass provide a range of solutions and services to the broadcast market whose clients include the BBC, BT Sports, Eurosport and Sky Sports.

Esme's progression from further education to higher education highlights the academic pathway into the music and media industry.

