

USING ENGLISH IN...

CHILDCARE AND EDUCATION

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- To help children to develop their own communication skills.
- To be able to provide and understand instructions to give to children and other staff members.
- To accurately fill in children's records and any other information, so that all staff can understand it and no mistakes are made.
- To effectively communicate with all adults including other staff and children's parents/carers.
- Producing reports on children's development, writing newsletters or letters to parents/carers, producing displays, supporting children's literacy.

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Play workers who deliver and facilitate play opportunities for children in settings including play groups and play schemes can earn an average of £18,808.

Nursery nurses and assistants care for children from birth up to seven years of age can earn an average of £17,487.

Higher level roles as child and early years officers who work with babies and with children up to 14 years can earn up to £25,944.

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills English classes identified on your timetable.

USING MATHS IN...

CHILDCARE AND EDUCATION

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- To be able to understand measurements for cooking and making meals when working with children.
- To understand measurements for any medicines children may need.
- So you can understand time and scheduling for children for meal times and sleep.
- Be able to support children's mathematical development
- Apply ratios accurately to safeguarded children and adhere to legislation requirements

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Play workers who deliver and facilitate play opportunities for children in settings including play groups and play schemes can earn an average of £18,808.

Nursery nurses and assistants care for children from birth up to seven years of age can earn an average of £17,487.

Higher level roles as child and early years officers who work with babies and with children up to 14 years can earn up to £25,944.

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills maths classes identified on your timetable.