

USING ENGLISH IN...

HAIRDRESSING

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- You will need to create well-written and concise client records in your files, so that you and your staff can easily read what is contained in these.
- If you are connecting with your client base on email or social media, you will want your messages and communications to be accurate and well put together.
- Creating an eye-catching piece of marketing or advertising for your business needs to be spot on with your spelling and grammar.

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Level 3 hairdressers could earn up to £17,000

Level 3 graduates who manage their own salon, could earn up to £26,000

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills English classes identified on your timetable.

USING MATHS IN...

HAIRDRESSING

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- You will need to be accurate with ratios when measuring and mixing colour and peroxide!
- When weighing out colour you will need an understanding of how many grams to use.
- Everything in hairdressing requires being on a time schedule.

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Level 3 hairdressers could earn up to £17,000

Level 3 graduates who manage their own salon, could earn up to £26,000

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills maths classes identified on your timetable.