

USING MATHS IN...

HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- You will need to be able to accurately carry out and record vital signs through patient observation checks.
- You will need to be able to accurately measure and record medication.
- You will need to be able to develop a balanced menu plan relating to service users individual dietary needs.
- You will need to be able to work out a financial support plan for a service user.

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Starting salary £16 an hour.

A Fully-qualified nurse can earn up to £20,000 a year.

A Fully-qualified health care worker can earn up to £20,000 a year.

A Fully-qualified paramedic can earn up to £34,000 a year.

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills maths classes identified on your timetable.

USING ENGLISH IN...

HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

WHAT YOU'LL NEED TO KNOW...

- You will need to be able to make concise and accurate written reports for example care records or safeguarding concerns.
- You will need to have knowledge of sector specific terminology and be able to use it appropriately in both verbal and written communications.
- You will need to be able to confidently verbally communicate with colleagues, service users and their families and other professionals.

Without these skills you could be limiting your opportunity to progress in your career.

Starting salary £16 an hour.

A Fully-qualified nurse can earn up to £20,000 a year.

A Fully-qualified health care worker can earn up to £20,000 a year.

A Fully-qualified paramedic can earn up to £34,000 a year.

*these figures are a national guide only

So don't miss out on your GCSE and functional skills English classes identified on your timetable.