REHEARSAL WEAR

As a performing arts student, you will be working in rehearsals and practical workshops, so having appropriate clothing is essential for your success. Having a change of clothes is also very important as you will get hot and sweaty! All performing arts students are required to wear specific rehearsal wear for all practical sessions.

This is for the following reasons:

1. Black is the standard 'theatre' colour for many performers and backstage workers
2. It is professional to do so
3. You need to be able to move freely and not feel self-conscious
4. As you move around, you may roll on the floor or bend over, and being appropriately covered up is important
5. We need an identity and formality to what we do when rehearsing and when on tour
6. Hygiene.

The compulsory clothing requirements are as follows:

DANCE AND MUSICAL THEATRE ONLY

- 1 x pair of black jazz shoes*
- 1 x pair of black tap shoes*
- 1 x pair of black 'Character shoes' are also useful*
- General black 'dancewear' e.g. black leotard (not low cut, lacy or backless)
- Suitable supportive underwear (e.g. sports bra or men's supportive boxers/pants).
